THE REVEREND LOUIS B. GEIGER, O.P. is professor at the Institute of Medieval Studies in Montreal and at the Saulchoir, Dominican House of Studies, at Soisy-sur-Seine near Paris. He is well known for his study, La participation dans la philosophie de St. Thomas d'Aquin. Early in 1963 will appear two volumes of his collected essays with the title, Philosophie et Spiritualité (Paris: Editions du Cerf).

MICHAEL POLANYI, distinguished physical chemist, is well known in the United States for his lectures and teaching. He is a Fellow of the Royal Society and has been Gifford Lecturer at Aberdeen. He is currently Research Fellow of Merton College, Oxford. At the present he is at the Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences at Stanford, California. His most recent philosophical studies are The Study of Man (1959) and Beyond Nihilism (1960). His important study, Personal Knowledge, has recently been reprinted (University of Chicago Press).

CHARLES A. MOORE is senior professor of Philosophy at the University of Hawaii and editor of the journal, Philosophy East and West. In addition to many scholarly publications he has contributed to an understanding between East and West through his work as chairman of the East-West Philosophers' Conference since 1939.

THE REVEREND ANDRE HAYEN, S.J. of the Institut Saint Robert Bellarmin in Belgium is especially known for his definitive study, L'intentionnel selon saint Thomas. He is at present preparing a four volume work, La communication de l'être, relating metaphysics to history and theology. The first two volumes, La métaphysique d'un théologien and L'ordre philosophique de saint Thomas, have already appeared (Paris-Louvain: Desclée de Brouwer).
